

Book of the Month Living the Cross Centered Life C.J.Mahaney

This short but powerful little book is rich and is a perfect supplement to our 2012 'Radical Discipleship theme: going deeper in order to grow stronger'. As Jerry Bridges author of The Pursuit of Holiness writes, 'This is a book to be read and reread many times. Its message will never grow old or out of date.' It is a wonderful reflection on the heart of the gospel, the cross of Christ showing how we who have experienced the grace of God ought to live a cross, centred and shaped life. It incorporates wonderful quotes from past and present great ones: Spurgeon, Stott, Piper and Carson. Mahaney employs what were for me new images and language, which made the message of the cross fresh and challenging. One such challenge comes at the end of chapter 10: 'So cultivate this joy...be continually meditating on the gospel. Let the cross always be the treasure of your heart, your best and highest thought...and your passionate preoccupation.' The book is available in hard back at $12.95 and as a compact disc for $19.95 so you can listen to it while you drive around in the car. I strongly commend this book to us all. May we read it and then in the power of the Spirit of Christ all live 'radical' cross centred lives.

The Importance of Remembering

Dear sisters and brothers,

In 2012 the month of April could be called 'Remembrance Month'. Over the Easter Weekend Christians all over the world will recall the central truths of the Gospel: the death of Jesus on the cross and his rising to life on Sunday. Then on 25 April the largest religious event in Australia will take place: ANZAC Day. Both of these commemorations are concerned with costly sacrifice and freedom.

The opening words of the ANZAC Day Service read, 'On this day above all days we recall those who in the great tragedy of war, gave their lives for Australia and for the freedom of mankind...' The Word of God explains that the ministry of the one divine-man Jesus had to do with freedom won because he gave his life, 'God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.'(John 3:16).'

The sacrifice of brave soldiers may have given us freedom from oppressive tyrants and governments BUT the sacrifice of Jesus Christ has given us freedom from 'the law of sin and death' (Romans 8:2). The ANZAC sacrifice may have resulted in a better lifestyle on Earth BUT Christ's sacrifice has provided the Christian with a quality of life that even death cannot touch.

The peace that the ANZACs bring is uneasy it never lasts, for it's unable to arrest the conflicts between nations. The peace that Jesus wins lasts, it is eternal. It's the peace between Creator and creature, which results in genuine peace between people from all races and colour, who authentically recognize Christ as Saviour and Lord. So God declares, 'Christ is our peace, who has...destroyed the dividing wall of hostility...His purpose was to create in himself one new people...thus making peace.'

(Ephesians 2:14-16).

The actual memory of the great tragedy of war on ANZAC Day serves to emphasise the necessity of the gospel. News reports on world conflicts reveal the broken and dead bodies of people of all ages once filled with life now lifeless. The pictures remove any thoughts of the glories of battle. Jesus came to our world as the Prince of Peace, he came to reconcile the world to God, to make friendship with God possible. He defeated our enemies Satan, sin and death not with aggression but submission, not with the weapons of war but with his own life, sacrificed freely on a Roman cross.

Unlike the broken bloodied bodies, which have scattered the battlefields of history, Jesus' bloodied body is something to glory in as we saw from John 12 on Sunday's message, 25 March. The cross is a symbol of the glorious love filled victory that God in Christ Jesus won for humanity. In war most people die unintentionally but some intentionally (eg. A suicide bomber). Jesus death was intentional but of a different order, 'God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us...., when we were enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son....'(Romans 8:8, 10). This is spectacular news for a broken, war filled world.

It's a message the church and its members are called by God to share with those who have yet to recognize their need of it. We are to intentionally sacrifice our time, energy and resources to show in holiness of life and graciousness of speech the love of God in Christ Jesus. In the world where ANZACs are still needed the Easter story needs to be proclaimed. Each of us can share the story of our encounter with God's grace. Also in May there are several outreach opportunities to assist you in your ministry of witnessing (see my prayer points below for details). Please join me in praying, that many people will find freedom from sin, and peace with God through the glorious sacrifice and victory of Christ especially over the next two months.

Your partner in proclaiming the Prince of Peace,
Steve Abbott

Prayer Points

- Pray for Staff and Parish Council as we work thought the 'Radical Together' feedback and determine how St Matt's may need to change in order to do the best and important instead of the good and urgent.
- Pray that our Easter Weekend Services (6-8 April) will be filled with many fringe, nominal and searching people who have received the advertising postcard and/or been invited by our members. Pray that many will be converted.
- Pray that many people will join in our second parish prayer day on 30 April in NewLine Cottage from 6am-9pm and that God will hear and answer our prayers for his glory, the growth of his Church & the advance of his Kingdom.
- Pray for our month of outreach and the 4 weeks of evangelistic preaching in May from Luke 18, that all the preachers will preach the Word carefully, clearly, creatively and with conviction. This month will include a special Seniors Lunch (May 2), a Women's Event (May 9) and a Men's Dinner (May 26). Please pray that the Unchurched and non-Christian people will accept invitations to attend the special events and Sunday Services. Pray that many will be converted.
- Pray that Sue and I will have a relaxing and refreshing weeks annual leave (9-15 April) and that we'll commend Christ and his gospel to our family, who we'll be spending time with during this week.

- It was wonderful to have so many families at Matts4Minis in Term 1 and we had a great time with our 'water' theme. Our net, hanging from the ceiling in Hall 3, is full of octopus and fish that we made in craft! Last week we did footprints with paint and then had our feet washed. We learned about Jesus washing his disciples feet. With the 9am Easter Sunday service coming up we are really looking forward to lots of Matts4Minis families coming along.

Christian Studies Dedication Service

On Thursday 22nd March, the Annual Dedication Service of the Pennant Hills Cherrybrook Christian Education Association was held at the Pennant Hills Baptist Church. The purpose of the service is to dedicate the work of the Christian Education Association, its teachers and volunteers for the next 12 months.

The Association represents the coming together of 13 local churches who see the two local high schools, Pennant Hills High and Cherrybrook Technology High, as a key mission field on our doorstep. The teachers and church representatives work in partnership to do God's work locally.

The program was action packed with students from Cherrybrook talking about the impact the program has on the whole school under the direction of their teacher, Peter Murphy. Graham Castle from Pennant Hills presented a DVD on Christian Studies at Pennant Hills.

We acknowledge and thank the work of the 17 volunteers who help with lunchtime groups and some classes. We are particularly thankful and want to acknowledge the contribution made by Kenny Liew, Darren Hua, Geoff Everett and John Carr from St Matthews.

Thanks and acknowledgements were made to Grant Howard who regrettably has had to be made redundant from Pennant Hills due to falling numbers at the school. Gav Poole, Chairman of the Association, prayed for Grant and the contribution he has made over the past seven years.

Thanks to those members of St Matthews who attended the service. We appreciate your support and the support of many others over the past 25+ years.

st matts youth update

Youth @ St Matt's – Term #1

This term has rocketed by... although I'm pretty sure people have been too busy to notice! Last Friday night was our last week of 'Clubbers' (Club 78) and 'FNL' (Friday Night Live Y9-12) for term 1.

This term the youth program adapted a parallel teaching series based on 'Radical'. In addition to the normal weekly program Club 78 splashed out and went swimming at the Homebush aquatic centre and FNL lowered the temperature with a night skating on the ice. Following weeks of wet weather the Family BBQ experienced a high attrition rate and we hope many more families will join us when we hold the next one, on the 28 October.

Coming up in just a few weeks is one of the highlights of the year, 'Too Much Fun'. This year's camp will be held from April 19-22 in the Royal National Park on the shores of the Port Hacking River at: Deer Park, Chaldercot and Telford. The theme this year is 'Wild vs Man' with talks to be given by Hans Kristensen and Arnaldo Santiago from the Gospel of Luke. The early bird rate for camp runs out SOON, so don't miss out!

If you've been praying for us – thank you! Please pray that MANY will come along to TMF this year and that of these, many might respond to the message of God's remarkable love and forgiveness in Christ. We look forward to being able to share with you news of what God did in answer to your prayers!

Many thanks.
In Christ,
Geoff

WEDNESDAY CHURCH, SENIORS AND PASTORAL CARE UPDATE

The 10.30am Wednesday Midweek Service has been humming along – we regularly have over 30 attending and peaked at 44 recently – most encouraging!!! It follows morning tea at 10.00am, and is a shorter more traditional service with shorter, but nonetheless relevant sermons by a variety of speakers – if this appeals why not give us a try!!

Similarly, the monthly Orana lunches have seen great roll ups – we heard Jon and Lika Phua tell us something of their Christian story in February, and in March enjoyed lunch together at Berowra Waters. On April 4th we will welcome Ian and Ruth Batey, one of our link missionary couples who will be sharing of their experiences in Spain. May 2nd is the combined Midweek Service/Orana lunch celebrating the Anniversary of Wednesday Church – we are thrilled that Jill McGilvray will be the speaker as she was instrumental in setting up the Midweek service and set the direction for much of the pastoral care framework of our church. Don't miss these lunches!

The Pastoral Care team continues to do a great job in support of those with particular needs. There is also a group looking at broadening and developing the concept of pastoral care within the church with a view to offering a course during the church 'focus' month in August. There will be an "encouragement" night for pastoral carers early in May: "Sowing Seeds of Hope".

Please continue to pray that in each of these important elements of our church life, growing in the knowledge and love of the Lord will be central.

MISSION AID GROUP (MAG)

April/May 2012

Thank you once again for your continued generosity over the past couple of months. We continue to receive a great variety of goods, all much needed by our friends in Tanzania. Suggestions for the next couple of months are: small sewing scissors (to fit in our sewing kits), or any other sewing kit item eg. cotton, needles, pins, tape, elastic etc. baby singlets (size 00 or 000), 8 ply knitting wool for squares or jumpers or anything from the green MAG brochure.

Don't forget Sunday 29 April when the SYDNEY MALE CHOIR will be at St Matt's to entertain us from 2pm. They are well known both here and overseas and have been chosen to represent Australia at the Anzac Day Dawn Service in 2013, at Villers-Bretonneux in France. Please keep the date free as this our fund raiser for the year and we would love as many as possible to join us for the concert followed by afternoon tea.

Thank you, Roslyn Dearden

9am Church

March saw a contingent of 9am-ers helping clean the West Pennant Hills Public School for Clean Up Australia Day. Our visibility was helped by our St Matt's T-shirts!

The 9am service continues to see new people each week, who appreciate the large number of children and the family friendly environment of our meeting.

Keen 9am-ers: Ruth Middleton and Meredith Donkin benefited greatly from attending Col Marshall's 'Vinegrowers' Seminar for women on March 17. The seminar was based on the groundbreaking ministry book 'The Trellis and the Vine', and we at 9am will be keen to ensure that our ministry is not just structures, administration and events, but training, multiplying and discipling people.

With Steve Abbott's blessing, for Easter, 9am will be joining the rest of the St Matt's family for Good Friday in the church building (8am or 10am). Then, we will be having our own 9am Easter Sunday Service in the school. Importantly, this will allow us to invite friends, family and those of the school community to join us in our special celebration. Already, families from Matts4Minis have been invited along with other friends.

Some prayer points:

- Give thanks for the new people and guests each week. Pray that each person is welcomed, included, and helped in their relationship with God and with his people at 9am.
- Give thanks for great resources such as Vinegrowers. Pray that our planning at 9am is not only about good structures, admin and events, but is focussed on training, evangelism and discipling of people.
- Give thanks for the joy of Easter, that we might rejoice in the Lord, in the death and resurrection of Christ. Pray especially that the 9am Easter Sunday service is family friendly, accessible, that many guests will come, in response to invitations.

*In Christ,
Jon Phua

Residence: 7 Warman Court, Leeming, WA, 6149

Found Jesus: [Steve] at the age of 23 through reading Luke's gospel and the providential meeting of an evangelical Christian. God is sovereign!

Favorite local eatery: Sandrino's in Fremantle

Social Activities: Coaching Lewis or Ezra in Soccer (I think it is Ezra's turn this year!), camping with friends, having people around to our house.

Currently Reading: 1 Corinthians. 'Surprised By Meaning' by Alister McGrath [In preparation for a campus mission about Atheism]. Among other things, McGrath tells his story of how he moved from Atheism to faith in Christ.

Words of Encouragement to those who want to "radically" challenge themselves:

Jesus died for all, so that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.

2 Corinthians 5:15

This is one of the clearest 'applications' or 'implications' of the cross for every Christian. It is extremely simple to read and to understand: it says that the reason Jesus died for us was that we would stop living for ourselves and put Jesus first in everything.

This verse continues to 'radically challenge' me and I pray it will have the same impact on you too as you reflect on it. It's worth memorizing!

Dear Friends at St Matts,

Thank you for your prayers and encouragement during our time of departure, travel and arrival in South America.

We have found the last month or so quite difficult with the travelling and living out of a suitcase or two. Anika has found it quite difficult and although she seems to be doing better now it seems she is wondering where home really is. There are times when you wonder why you come halfway around the world and bring your two little daughters with you, one just 10 weeks old.

This weekend we moved into the apartment above one of the mission houses. This is where we will live until June/July when the family living in the house returns to the US and then we will move into the house. It will be another move but this time just downstairs. We have been in five locations in five weeks and that has been particularly hard for Anika. It is hard to know what she must be thinking about what is happening in our lives. It has been a tiring time but we are thankful that everything has gone smoothly.

Our time in Lima went well with our visa applications going smoothly so far. We will need to return to Lima in a few weeks' time to collect our identity cards and then we begin the process for the children. We are adapting again to life and culture in Peru. Arequipa is dry, dusty and noisy with the customary car horns, alarms and fireworks a regular feature. We are getting back up to speed with our language which after a year back in Australia is a bit rusty, and also getting to know the local culture and the church scene.

I have been up to visit the bible institute in a small town about 45 minutes from Arequipa. It is by no means luxurious or well equipped. I had a chance to speak to some of the students and was encouraged by their great desire to serve the Lord and who have travelled far and made sacrifices to come and study. They are greatly needed in their churches. Of the 40 or so churches in the city of Arequipa belonging to the IEP denomination, only 12-15 have pastors. So far we only have a small snapshot but it tells us that there is a great need for Theological Education to help strengthen the churches of Peru and we feel privileged to be able to serve God in this area.

In Him,
Morgan and Anna

- Pray for our language and culture acquisition.

Ian and Ruth Batey

Ian and Ruth Batey are currently in Sydney with their three children Samuel, Emma and William. They have been missionaries in Spain since 2008. The Bateys give thanks that their children have settled well into school in Sydney, and ask for prayer for positive deputation visits and their re-entry to life in Seville. On Sunday April 01 after the 10AM service, Ian and Ruth will share some of their story. If you would like to receive the Bateys' prayer letter, contact Church Mission Society (CMS) Australia <http://www.cms.org.au/get-involved/subscribe>, also check out the Missions link on the St Matt's website.

Dear Friends at St Matt's,

We are already half way through our time in Australia, and enjoying seeing family and friends, and catching up with our ministry partners in person. We are also enjoying the break from speaking Spanish. Our CMS accommodation in Riverwood is well situated for school, shopping and public transport, and is certainly in a very multicultural area. We feel closer to 'the nations' here in Riverwood than we do in Seville! Living overseas has made us much more sympathetic to new migrants to Australia. We know first-hand that living the daily routine in another culture can be a tiring and emotional experience. It makes me wonder how isolated many immigrants must feel here, and what a great opportunity churches have to offer a helping hand and a new friendship, and at the same time testifying to the love of God for us all in Christ.

Our return to Seville is getting closer every day. I often wonder how we will go as a family re-assimilating into the Spanish culture, the language challenges, the kids' return to school, and the enormous challenge of re-plating our church in our local area. We will certainly need the care and support of our wonderful partners in Australia.

Wherever we are though, we do trust that God will not burden us beyond what we can bear, that he is always with us, and that our mission is first and foremost his mission and his task, to reach all people everywhere with the message of salvation in Jesus.

God Bless,

Ian and Ruth

A Postcard from Nerida!

Well, it is strange to me that I am already into my 3rd year here at St Matt's! How is that possible? How has the time gone so fast? Well, you know what they say - Time flies ...

This week I had the privilege of being down at an Arrow training course in Melbourne. Steve sat on the board of this organization for many years, and it really is wonderful! I had the joy of a week with fellow pastors from a range of denominations, some excellent education and presentations on various ministry skills, and lots of laughter to boot. (If you will believe it, I was one of the quieter ones there!) But one of my favourite parts of the week was hearing Richard Coekin of St Jude's Carlton speak from 2 Corinthians. It reminded me again how God's word is living water to us.

When Paul talks about his thorn, he says that God gives him a specific message – “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” He boasts about his own weaknesses, so that Christ’s power would rest on him! Richard called this “weak power”. The amazing thing about God is that he has entrusted his precious Gospel to us - not to herculean characters or X-men, but to those of us who are weak and failing, and inadequate to the task - to jars of clay. But again as Paul says, this is to show that the all-surpassing power is from God and not from us. This is something that I am endlessly thankful for. That it is God’s ministry and kingdom, not mine, God’s strength and beauty, not mine, God’s wisdom and power, not mine! And yet I have a treasure – “For God who said, ‘Let light shine out of darkness,’ made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ.” And this is the treasure of the Gospel that feeds us, that fills us, that communicates God’s love to us, and finally compels us to continue to tell people about our Triune God and what he has done in Christ. I don’t know about you, but often the enormity of the world’s need, or even our many tasks and ministries at St Matt’s can seem too much, but I was reminded that it is our weakness, when combined with God’s power that takes forward his Kingdom. So friends I want to encourage you in every way you are being faithful to God, whether they seem big or small – because all of them are part of our radical obedience to God. Weak power – I’ve decided it’s the best kind!

I want to say a huge thank you to all of you. I love being here at St Matt’s, I love getting to journey with all of you. Getting to know you and hang out with you has been my favourite part of the last two years, and is a constant source of delight and joy.

Blessings on each of you!!

Love in Christ, Nerida
